

Fast Foods

NUTRITIOUS

SNACKING

RESTAURANT

DOUGHNUT

HAMBURGER

HOT DOG

CALORIES

MALNUTRITION

DELICIOUS

OBESITY

HUNGER PANG

WRAP

FRENCH FRIES

VEGETARIAN

STYROFOAM

- 1) Write each of these groups of words in alphabetical order : * the nouns *the adjectives *the words that begin with consonant blends
- 2) Write each of these words with the noun that is formed from the same base word.
... *nutritious *snacking.
- 3) What adjectives belong with each of these words? * obesity *grease *hunger pang
- 4) What is an antonym for ... *obesity *malnutrition *delicious
- 5) Define vegetarian. (b) Suggest a good fast food for a vegetarian.
- 6) (a) “When two vowels go walking, the first one does the talking”, is an old saying that means the first vowel is usually pronounced with a long sound whenever two vowels are together in a word.
(a) Write one list word that follows this guide. (b) Write one list word that does not follow this guide. (c) Two list words contain vowel sounds produced by a “Y”. Write the words and identify the vowel sound.
- 7) Check in the dictionary for the meaning of malnutrition and two other words that were not familiar to you.. Write the meanings in your book.
- 8) Research! (a) What can you find out about the history of the hamburger, and the hot dog?
Research! (b)When and where did the McDonald chain open its first business?
Research! (c) Write a factual paragraph about the children’s charity sponsored by the McDonald chain.
- 9) Explain how Styrofoam is connected to the fast food industry, AND why it is a problem.
- 10) (a) Name two fast foods that were omitted from this list. (b) In a sentence, name your favourite fast food and explain why you like it.